THE
MISSOURI
INSURGENT

NOV!!!

FUCK

Are you reading this magazine for when there is revolutionary shit need be done?

Before you perform any action regarding revolutionary action, NEVER weigh in the undesirable consequences and you will find the only consequences you have are favorable. Immediate and swift reaction limits your adversaries' arsenal.

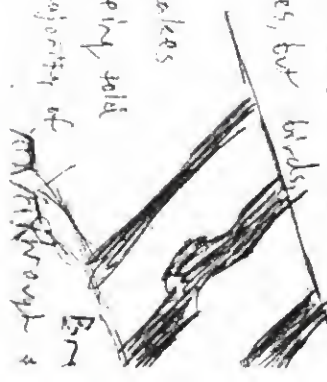

A shadow of insurrection is congregating around the town of Columbia....

Why the American Empire Needs Armed Resistance,

The US military machine is the large for us even to guess. Those who are in power ~~want~~ want to stay in power. Skating back at a cop will own you a tank and firebomb. Also the government controls the technology, so fuck you ~~USA~~, cause your revolution will come till you are higher, more admired, more of defense than your Enemy. Saying "we don't have to kill, we just need to protect." The American Empire has no notion of collapsing without a fight so it is now upon in this day to organize better defense. This means we need to take it upon ourselves to provide "better defense." This means we need to take "no cop zones" in religious/natural reasons. Pass property laws that state any company failing to adequately provide for employees or leave a building closed for so many months the property is automatically deemed public property or the public to take the initiative to do with as they wish. Not a direct or representative decision but an actual physical decision. We need European squat laws in the states but until then expand apartment programs or start offensive teams and excellent video journalism practice not only private radio but private tv with free information networks. As large affinity groups we can start creating a liberation army whose sole duty is to, might the state and authority wherever they be. The US has not been shared with large scale protest so they face the ~~state~~ at our guns!

Take copyrights! Reprint this, misquote it to make room for your improve and pass it along! Toss on it! Fuck on it! Defend on it! Then copy it and redistribute it. Just cause because you are in free to do

It's time we started inventing our own brother and sisters to fucking government! The government drives on in-fighting & can be arbitrary regulation makers. If we start saving as by ourselves there is no need for a fucking government. So "you're" have unlocked for travellers and "homeless" people sharing meals/food with your neighbors. Start revolutionizing with week long block parties and festivals. Zines produced by everyone. Massive collaborations of intellectual ad-hoc hours of comedic fun Marijuana seedlings planted in the cracks sideways and bricks ~~through~~ in windows to make room for flowers and shrubs. Community gardens and full 24/7 F&B for travellers and freed slaves of wages. The only thing left to do is to fuck over corporate America as much as possible. Now a revolution will find this particularly easy as one merely needs to and revolting. Speed limit signs should be taken down while jackhammered up. Equipped with flaming arrows a talented could easily and secretly incinerate billboards—Missouri's bi-ecological disaster as it robs people everyday they pass to work bearing, controls their minds, and last but probably the most important the environment over considerably. Plants with noticeable ep smokestacks should be capped and pressure from the hot vapors up exploding the Dr. Deaths of our mutually-shared atmosphere. People would protest but you must remember that we share the with more than just your friend and future friends of ashtray heroin disease, lung cancer, skin diseases, but birds, fishes, and everything else that is alive in this world. America makes are fucking sick and I'm fed up being told to love it or leave it! So are the majority of people and we all want change!

Black Blocs for no Reason
 - being part of the revolution without revolting. Break through or police line! Throw that rock! Overturn that paddy wagon!
 This is a goddamn revolution! We aren't waiting anymore. Fuck capitalism and fuck those who support it. We need an everyday resistance and marches on the capital. Encampments that state thousands of black roses won't leave peacefully until they are killed or the government dissolves itself. We need to paint the streets red and have no window selling anything left unbroken or covered in propaganda.
 Free! Free! Free! Free! Free! Free! Free! Free! Free! Free!
 It's time to say goodbye to the fucking bourgeoisie! Free genders!
 What punished us with no smiles, free Tibet! Free fair trade!
 It's time to rot and drag our corpses out of this rotting bile Free Muslim!
 No more polite protest. No more distasteful conversations. Free your bomb! Grab your radio! Grab your guitar! Zines!
 It's revolution here and for evermore! Free Jerome Whiteley!
 Free communication! I'm taking it all! Free Whiteley!
 Free communication! Free the water! Free prisons!
 I have a holy idea. Free the water! Free slaughterhouses!
 It's by sheer acknowledgment that you are a free being that you know you truly are. Free the most violent of the government loves to point out they gave you freedom but instead we know they only wish to fuck it! Well guess what? This highly sensitive anarchist collective will fight back! We are a unanimous motherfucker!

The time is long overdue. This shit should've not a long time ago. Enough is enough. I'm and fucking tired of waiting for the revolution are the revolution! It will ever come unless this truth and act upon it. We could publish a zines every day and we would still not be free we performed our action. Stop playing the system its messy hands. Fuck comfort! Desire and accept ! But freedom! True and Pure! Right now the p are looking people up for having "dangerous tho ideas." Okay, everyone is pissed about that but you sh create those power-suit motherfuckers went biting our "dangerous actions." When was the last assassin When was the last federal fucking blown? Fuck yo those who have to "broke a few eggs" by killing the Fucking, sick fucks! Of course that goes to our ge and his cronies/henchmen. I was about ousted in a class once for comparing the American flag to the Sw That was before it wisd up and got those brainwashing but the point is people need to start standing up. Pure Your best friend, your mother, fuck all your grandmo

Liberate the Drugs!

In the past couple of years John Ashcroft et al, have opened a new front on the 'war on drugs' which could easily be referred to as the battle for free thought. It's time we get off our ass and started doing something. Why support capitalism when simultaneously getting ripped off from a dealer? Why not have free access to marijuana, psilocybin, acid, etc? This country is ruled by fear. Ask anyone to take part in their freedom and they'll readily respond by saying it's too much risk of going to jail. Fuck that! Labor, grow ops, especially shrooms, are incredibly easy to hide and hide it takes almost no money to do why not distribute it freely? Why not roll up two joints and head downtown. Find some people you don't know and light up then pass it. Give them the other joint and ask them if they'd do the same to another stranger. Most people are moved enough by your example to follow but if not that's cool because there's one more person saying 'fuck you' to rules and regulations.

Living away weed is an exhilarating experience and it reminds you how easy change is if you start taking the first steps. Remember, to change the world you have to change yourself first. The government knows organic drugs such as weed and shrooms give the individual courage and determination to stand up for theirs and others' human rights. They realize that drugs are a more immediate intervention tool than the written word is now. So grow it and give it away free! If you hear stories say in the police section of a newspaper of someone getting busted ~~for~~ <sup>for</sup> their mother fuck of them for being stupid--

Carry a spray paint can with you at all times. When you think a distressing thought write it down expressing bold words immediately. "The ground you are standing on is a liberated zone. Defend it."

Where's the Missouri A-narchy support? I had a receipt to the West to broaden my experiences and discovered that but a piece of the state, along with every warlike co-conspirator the territory of the Missouri/Mississippi Rivers where rebellion give but sparse flower life as all fauna have vanished the hell is the FF! of Missouri? It is high time we are fucking bureaucratic devils and corporate rapers as more and on any harm towards the Earth will result in financial hopelessly mental damage <sup>to the</sup> towards them. You strip more mine we will blow your digging equipment sky believed fucking Lake that is stagnant and unhealthy will be no more. The dam (Bagnell) will be blown is only a matter of time. The state continuously talks of its Homeland Security to provide against domestic terrorism. Do they have it switched around? There was a advanced civilization here 4000 years ago and now we can even name who lived in this region before, before a tribunal the entire American regime for high against humanity. Punishment: Dissolution, for humans large a peaceful people. Maybe that is why there of so strong and resilient against the vile and hideous of this current state.

the labor movement was finally making a stand in pubescent empirical capitalism initiative. Funny, read about this in school, eh? In Chicago there were at 10,000-20,000 strong armies of fighters willing to defend their sisters/brothers against the brutal practices Chicago police and big businesses. Fluge paradig with ed rifles and torches were proudly carried to show who big dick. Of course America being the fucker it is a bring down a couple cavalry divisions fresh from native massacres to "control" the situation and the city go personally bought two Gatling guns -- the precursor is machine gun, but think of them for size proportion anon. It's time to fight back! Fuck this lawyerague and prison support shit! Light a fire and burn it! Build a tunnel and get your sisters/brothers out of entrather/brainwash camps known as correctional facilities. anarchists are not the typical bomb-toting black-clad the public perceives them as. True, every American "I know doesn't take bombs. We are an extremely place of people. Well, fuck that! I can not stand smoking weed to ease my conscience while I know shit is going around. Throw that fucking bomb! people like to slash cop tires. That's cool but why are? America is the only fucking country in the where overused "hard" is.

transportation known as the car. Slash them all! You know many, many people that smoke marijuana in this town, Colorado.
So, the "Peak for Hemp" comes out every now and then but what about massive smoke-ins? What are they going to do, arrest 300 people? They don't have enough building space for that shit! An one that does get arrested needs to be freed immediately, through any means necessary. Next tactics from the G. leaders need to be recognized. Educate your younger sisters/brothers by leafletting important issues at your local high school. Make sure to include pertinent advice on dropping out, organizing, allyship, groups, attacking drug-testing and dress codes vehemently, and for fucks sake get those legal thug-pigs-out of those institutions. Demand an end to the Pure and related programs.
Demand student participation in All school board meetings.
Perform street theater, drama, prose at any and all times. Abuse use of public space and have high disrespect/disregard for private property. Kids, before they become conditioned to America are some of the smartest motherfuckers on this planet. Try learning from them.

Liberation by any means necessary.
